ENQUIRY Concerning the Unity or Oneness OF T H E CHURCH BODYf CHRIS T, BY the Term Church, I understand any number of Men, great or small, that are collected into a Society upon a Religious Account, that is upon the Account ot a particular Way and Method of approving and recommending themselves to the Love and Favour of God, which we commonly call Religion. By the Christian Church, or the Church of Christ, t mean all those Men that are collected into a Body or Society upon the account of their chuling and embra cing that Way and Method of serving and pleasing God which Christ Or the Christian Revelation hath proposed and recommended to the World, which we tall, The Christen Religion. As to the Term Unity or One, when it is used simply, without being applied to any Subject: , then its Sense and Mean ingJs. most plain and easie to be understood; One being the original and beginning of all Numbers, all Numbers being no other than an Addition of several Unites. But when Unity is applied to any Subject, it must first be reduced to a Standard, before we can know what One of that Subject is, which Unity is applied to. Thus for Example, when we speak of One Pound Weight, a Pound must be redued to a Standard: Just such a de gree oi Weight, (no more nor no less,) must be made the Standard ot...
