The meeting was called to order by the Hon. Emory Washburn and Charles W. Eliot, President of Harvard University was chosen Chairman. On taking the chair President Eliot said: - Ladies and Gentlemen: - We all feel a strong purpose, I doubt not, to do whatever in us lies to preserve the most interesting building which now stands in New England. Its life has been very gravely threatened. Before we can clearly decide what we will do in these premises, it is necessary to get a distinct view of what has already been done. I have heard it stated frequently during the last two or three months that the Old South has already been saved. I...
