Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from First Annual Report of the Geological Survey of Ohio: Third Organization This first annual report of the Geological Survey of Ohio under its new organization has, to some extent, fallen short of the purpose with which it was begun. It was intended that the report should furnish a review of the various mineral interests of the State, brought down to the date of publication. Under this plan, which is deferred rather than abandoned, the new facts pertaining to our coal resources and their practical development, to our quarries, to our clay deposits and the manufactures based on them, to our limes, cements, marls and plaster beds as well as to petroleum and gas would all find place in the annual report of the survey. The interest at present pertaining to the last subject named in the list given above has, however, been so deep and wide-spread and its economic importance has proved so large that the logic of events has rendered it necessary to devote this entire report to Natural Gas and Oil. It has thus become a monograph upon this subject, and its entire 300 pages are occupied with facts and discussions growing out of the marvellous discovery of Findlay gas and Lima oil in a Lower Silurian limestone six years ago. The natural gas interests of the State, in particular, have demanded and received in this report a measure of attention that is out of proportion to their intrinsic value. These interests are in marked contract with the oil interests of the new fields in this respect, viz., that while the latter are almost exclusively in the hands of those whose knowledge has been...
