Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Within an aura of uncertainty about ourselves within the political turmoil created by Barack Obama and his anti-Christian administration, our nation now has no vision for an optimistic future for ourselves. Within those obscured dreams of our future, we twice elected a president who did not, and does not, share those foundational expectations and dreams for our nation s future. Those were the dreams, expectations, and aspirations designed for each of us by our Founding Fathers, those brave and foresightful ancestors who fought and died for us. Many fought and died to grant us liberty and freedom and an inalienable right to seek personal success and happiness. They gave us personal opportunity unknown by any people before us. They gave us human reality, individual dignity, and hope as free individuals. Barack Obama clearly is determined to destroy that destiny they planned for us. How is Barack Obama different from those Founding Fathers, and most presidents before him? He expresses total disdain for those who strive for personal success and happiness. Instead, he advocates equality by devices to spread the wealth around; taking from those who succeed and giving to others who merely wait on the sidelines with their hands extended. He blasphemes and ridicules God; while he exclaims the great virtues of the Muslim faith. Most importantly, he offers no great hope or vision for this great nation to go forward into the future, demonstrating the highest qualities and virtues of humanity. He destroys the purpose for which our nation was founded, under God, with liberty and justice for all. That destiny was created through the sacrifices of our patriotic ancestors. He divides and destroys a wonderful humanitarian...
