Not illustrated. 1908 Excerpt: . . . held June 27, 1907, a petition from citizens and property owners in the Town of Morristown and the Townships of Morris and Hanover, requesting the Commission to rescind its approval of the plans for the location of the proposed sewage disposal plant for the Town of Morristown, was submitted by G. G. Frelinghuysen and C. Franklin Wilson. At the same meeting, the Commission decided to meet at Morristown, Monday, July 8, 1907, for the purpose of holding a public hearing on the petition submitted by citizens and property owners to the Commission to rescind its approval of the location of the sewage disposal plant for the Town of Morristown, and for the purpose of inspecting the proposed site of the plant. The secretary was directed to notify the interested parties and to request them to be present or represented at that meeting, and to suggest that no action be taken in relation to the contract for the disposal plant until the petition presented to the Commission had been disposed of by it. The Commission met at Morristown July 8, 1907, and inspected the site selected for the proposed sewage disposal plant for Morristown, and also an alternative site about a mile further down the valley of the Whippany River. The Commission also held a public hearing on the objections made by George G. Frelinghuysen and others to the proposed site of the sewage disposal plant at Morristown. There appeared before the Commission George G. Frelinghuysen, Henry...
