The minister should receive a separate letter, and should not be inoluded in any letter commending his wife or other members of his family. 655. In cases where entire rest is not desired, priests may inform their Angels that they are willing to exchange duty with priests in other Churches. The names of such ministers should be forwarded to the Pastor with the Apostle, that he may place the respective Angels in communication with each other; and the arrangement upon which they agree shall be submitted to the Apostle for his sanction and order. 656. Angel-Evangelists and Angels of Churches are to make their applications for leave of absence to the Apostle through the heads of their respective ministries. Such leave of ahsenee should not ordinarily extend beyond a month in each year. For Forms of Registers, see Appendix I. CHAPTER XX. OF UNDER-DEACONS AND THE MANNER OF THEIR ELECTION. 657. The duty of the under-deacon is to assist the deacons, chiefly in preserving the order of the Lord in His house; also in taking oversight of the walk and conversation of those 658. The under-deacons should have convenient seats in the church, from which they may observe the conduct of the people, and see that they behave decorously, and join in the responses, creeds, psalms, and hymns, and generally fulfil their part in the services. They should enquire into the reasons for any absenting themselves from the services, and,...
