Government Accountability Office, 2006 OCLC Number: (OCoLC)77628548 Subject: Intellectual property infringement -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . NIPLECC, remarking that it was unfocused, ineffective, and unwieldy. In official comments to the councils 2003 annual report, major IP industry associations expressed a sense that NIPLECC is not undertaking any independent activities or having any impact. However, some officials interviewed did cite positive contributions supporting IP efforts, including an IP training database Web site. Finally, we noted in our 2004 report that if Congress wished to maintain NIPLECC and take action to increase its effectiveness, it should consider reviewing the councils authority, 12 operating structure, membership, and mission. In October 2004, the President launched STOP, a separate initiative led by the White House under the auspices of the National Security Council, to target cross-border trade in tangible goods and strengthen U. S. government and industry IP enforcement actions. While STOP made no mention of NIPLECCs role, STOP members are the same agencies that house NIPLECC members, except that STOP includes the FDA. According to a high-level...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
