

Wanting to Believe: Faith, Family, and Finding an Exceptional Life

By Ryan Dobson

B&H Books. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 224 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.4in. x 0.6in. When it comes to life, we want to get it right. As the only son of child and family psychologist Dr. James Dobson, Ryan Dobson grew up in the hot spotlight of what felt like Christian celebrity culture, with his dad's proponents and opponents alike wanting to know if Doc actually practiced what he preached. As a teenager, Ryan was curious about that too: sure, his parents talked a good game, but would they back up their beliefs with action? Like many adolescents, Ryan pushed the limits on his parents' boundaries, seeing just how far they'd stretch. He questioned their faith, their rules, their values, and their truth, determined to sort out life for himself. The journey wasn't a pretty one, but it was beneficial in the end. Because once Ryan held up his parents' core principles to the intense gaze of scrutiny, he discovered how right they'd been. In Wanting to Believe, Ryan discloses the key messages imparted to him by his folks, sensible parents wanting to pass down truth to a stubborn son, covering topics like faith, finances, responsibility, identity, marriage, parenting, and the power...
