He was closely associated with President George Washington, served as his private secretary, was a tutor in his family, and was honored with his particular friendship. Mr. Lear was born in the Lear mansion, on Hunking street, in Portsmouth, N. H., September 19, 1762, and was the son of Captain Tobias Lear, once a shipmaster and later in life a successful farmer. He received a liberal education and was graduated from Harvard in 1783. Immediately after the close of the Revolutionary war, General Washington retired to Mount Vernon in the belief that his public career had closed, and in the fervent hope that he might resume the quiet life of a country gentleman. His correspondence, however, steadily increased and soon became so burdensome that the services of a private secretary were needed....
